

"Intesti-Bacteriophage Tablets"

Composition: Instesti-bacteriophage is a mixture of pre-concentrated and lyophilization-dried sterile filtrates of phagolysates of the following bacteria:

1. Shigella flexneri (of 1,2,3,4,6 serovars) and S. sonnei;
2. Salmonellas (S. paratyphi "A", "B", enteritis, typhimutoum, cholera suis, oranienburg);

Most spread serologic groups of enteropathogenic strains of E-coli -0111, 055, 026, 0125, 0119, 0128, 018, 044, 025, 020;
Proteus (vulgaris and mirabilis);
Staphylococci;
Enterococci;
Pseudomona aeruginosa.

Form of preparation: The preparation is manufactured in the form of tablets covered with a intestinesoluble sheath.

Biological Properties: Intesti-bacteriophage causes the lysis of the respective bacteria.

Indications: Management of intestine infections caused by the above bacteria.

Intesti-bacteriophage is used to manage dysentery, salmonellosis, dyspepsia, colitis, enterocolitis.

Administration and Dosage: The preparation is used per os during 5-6 days from the first day of disease onset (before hospitalization with physician's prescription). The recommended doses are:

Children -1 tablet 3 times a day; Adults -2 tablets 3 times a day.

If within the indicated term no full recovery occurs the administration of the medicine can be continued during subsequent 2-3 days.

Use of intesti-phage does not exclude use of other medicines.

Side-effects: No side effects were observed while using the preparation.

Contraindications: The preparation does not have any contraindications.

Packaging: 24 tablet plates.

Storage and transportation: Bacteriophage shall be stored at ambient temperature in a dry, dark place. Shelf-life: 1.5 years.